The Sound of Silence

Have you ever really listened to silence? Is it a feeling, or is it an actual sound? Think of silence. Make a list or build a web of ten things that are silent, feelings that are associated with silence, or places where silence is common or needed.

Your assignment this week is to write a paragraph that describes this sound.

Look back at your brainstorming material for ideas to help you. Focus heavily on IDEAS and STYLE this week.

Use figurative language to help describe silence.
